Missouri Association of Student Councils Presents

Sandy Ginger is a 30-year educator in the Clark County School District in Las Vegas, NV. In her position as the CCSD Director of Student Activities, Sandy coordinates student events and 40+ graduations. She is an Executive Director for the Nevada Association of Student Councils and a Co-Director of the Western Leaders Summer camp in Washington State. Sandy is an Honorary Lifetime member of The California Association of Directors of Activities and the only non-Californian to be recognized with their Bob Burton Award. Sandy's most cherished recognition came in 2007 when she was honored with the Earl Reum Award. Sandy is a dog lover, an average soccer player and a pretty good baker.
